DISCREDITABLE TRICKERY

Few will blame Senator Young of Vero Beach for accepting the position of general manager of Everglades Drainage District and the proportion of the salary of seven thousand five hundred dollars per annum that appears thereon. It is often remarked among friends, "If it's there, you might as well get it as anything." Seven thousand five hundred dollars is a tidy sum anywhere and at any time there are governors of states who get no more, or less, or more, and times that are now passing on the population magnifies the magnitude. Whether anybody should get seven thousand five hundred dollars under the circumstances will be debated broadly by a good while.

Senator Young's political and personal friends, and his business associates as well, for that matter, will congratulate him on his sound business judgment. He is a good business man in overcoming his reluctance to take the job and the salary. It is a good business for him to take it.

It is true that Senator Young had said he would not take the job of general manager of Everglades Drainage District if it had not been offered to him. His denial challenged the accuracy, the information, the discernment, the perspicacity of him. The Everglades News does not say that he was to be general manager of Everglades Drainage District, and that wasn't his line. He Everglades News does not make seven thousand five hundred dollars a year, a lot of business doesn't make it, but we have lots of perspicacity and we are proud of our brand of perspicacity—proof of our ability to see into a principle as far as anyone, so when Senator Young said he would not take the job, he challenged our perspicacity that wasn't nice of him, to say the least. Now he wins seven thousand five hundred dollars a year, but he loses something else, which, however, he may count as of no value.

Sensor Young said from Tallahassee in April that he would not take the job, and later in the month of June, "Whisper" held out a contract, seven thousand five hundred dollars a year. If there was reluctance, and the denial from Tallahassee in April, then there must have been persuasion from some source, and the source was a position of authority, and the authority was Senator Young. The Everglades News, probably it wasn't nice, in the first place, for the Everglades News to spill the beans and disclose the deal that had been made, but the transaction was so transparent, that it was evident and no practical result except share in deceit would result from concealment. The Everglades News didn't care to share in the deceit, for this paper is impatient with grandstanding and post-fudging and deceit and duplicity and it is particularly aware if those practices enhance Everglades Drainage District. Whether the resignation and later appointment of Senator Young as general manager of those appellations is questionable, the transaction of resignation, denial and appointment was so easily seen through that its transparency may be an effective device. Anybody who verges too close to the truth to suit the Everglades News, which much prefers that all persons dealing with Everglades Drainage District for certain reasons, should be clean and stay that way.

Young said he would not take the job, and later in the month of June, "Whisper" held out a contract, seven thousand five hundred dollars a year.

 I was saying in the issue of July 21 that Senator Young had taken over by making a recommendation for an appointment on the drainage board without consulting me. I had been a candidate for the legislature on an issue of my own making, which issue was centered in Everglades drainage district, and had invited all who opposed my views to vote against me. While Senator Young was running a real estate business in the north, I had fired on the bank of West Palm Beach canal and Lake Okechobee, while Senator Young was holding water with his Palm Beach cottage real estate clients, I was eating and sleeping in the house of Everglades and Indian-Caribbean. I had supported Clinton for governor while most of Senator Young's supporters were supporting Hathaway and opposing Clinton. In no public dealing with Senator Young, did Senator Young say anything about Everglades Drainage District.

IN LIEU OF GOLF

The Editor's Own Column

Some of my friends are asking me why I will be the next governor or who I want for governor, but the subject does not interest me, which is not surprising. I haven't an opinion and don't care a lot. I don't care to have any of the other state officials make up the payroll board, and I don't expect to have to go to the state penitentiary and if any of my friends do something that gets them in the penitentiary that will be their hard luck—they will have to see Senator Hodges, for I don't expect to be in position to help them. This goes for all officers. Newspaper publishers often expect to be elected to some office, but I don't care to be in position to help them. This goes for all officers. Newspaper publishers often expect to be elected to some office, but I don't care to be in position to help them.

The Cleveland News printing press, which was shipped here there to Panama City, and in the latter last issue of his paper the Cleveland News printed a notice to B. G. Dahlberg, "B.G. is exactly the right word, for the Cleveland News is a good business man in overcoming his reluctance to take the job and the salary. It is a good business for him to take it."

Removal of the printing plant from Cleveland to Tallahassee, the friction between the Everglades News and the sugar company, while I was in the legislature two years ago the Cleveland News under the patronage of the sugar company, the field I was serving acceptably, and when the sugar company took over the newspaper business I went into the sugar business in competition. If the sugar company was going to run the newspaper business there isn't any reason why I should be in the sugar business. If the sugar company sticks to the sugar business and doesn't stick its fingers into things that are going to hurt business, everything will be fine. For I will try to behave myself as well as they behave themselves.

commission and omission, the division of responsibility, the uncertainty as to what was to be done and when and where. The great mistake was to fix responsibility. It didn't make so much difference who was responsible for it, so it was some place you could put your finger on and know who to punish. The mistake was to give an order and who was to get the order carried out. For that reason I wanted to see that the commissioners of Everglades drainage district appointed by the governor were elected by the residents, and elected by the landowners, but appointed by the governor. Of course the governor and some of the other state officials make up the payroll board, and I don't expect to have to go to the state penitentiary and if any of my friends do something that gets them in the penitentiary that will be their hard luck—they will have to see Senator Hodges, for I don't expect to be in position to help them. Appointments of the board were a general matter, it was a particular thing. But it is one way of discrediting the peddler, who has not the slightest consideration for your peace and comfort, but uses your home as a market place, in unfair competition with honest merchants who in other ways, license fees, and pay rent, taxes, and contribute to the welfare of the community.

CANAL POINT

Lee Hills, chief of police of Pompano, was in Canal Point and Pahokee Wednesday in search of a man who is wanted on a charge of robbing a cleaning and pressing establishment. While in town Mr. Hills called on his old friend R. L. Wagner.

R. W. Simmons went up to Okeechobee the first of the month and brought back his father, D. P. Simmons, who had visited at Gen. E. A. McKenzie's Burying Garden which worked in Florida Lake drainage district, are stalled at Okeechobee, held in readiness to go on the federal government's work on Taylor creek if he gets a contract as he expects. Mr. McKenzie has just finished making the grade for the Indian Prairie road, to Kissimmee river.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vann returned to their home in Canal Point Tuesday. They came in from Lake City, S. C., where Mr. Vann was engaged in shipping peaches for several months. Their son Gordon, who had been in Madison, got home a few days ahead of them.

The Lake Okeechobee region has not any residents more loyal to the country than the Vann family. They say it is a good thing to be away for a while during the summer and their good health and good spirits indicate that they enjoyed their vacation.

H. B. ("Doc") Miller, proprietor of the Miller drug store, has returned from a two-week stay at Bowling Green, Ky., his old home. In his absence the drug store was looked after by J. B. Batcher and Mrs. Frances Cross, many tourists to Florida know Bowling Green, Ky., because it is on the original Dixie highway, once a bad road in that section and now a splendid highway.

Doc says it is nice to get back to the old home, but two days would serve as well as two weeks. Roy Batcher returned the latter part of last week from a vacation visit to Colquitt, Ga., his old home. His wife and his sister came back with him as far as Plant City, where they paused for a while.

A daughter was born Thursday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goolbsy at a hospital in West Palm Beach, where Mrs. Goolbsy had gone a few days before. The little girl, 8 1/4 pounds, in weight, has been named "The Everglades News and Mrs. Goolbsy was a nurse in the high school at St. Maureen Goolbsy didn't turn out to be president of the United States and she is to make a good society edition.

Thurmond Knight was at Green Cove, Aug. 5. The Everglades News reported a batch of his travel, good stuff, but too late to be in the high school. He's not, but it is supposed his parents and his brother, B. J. Thurmond, are with him. It was understood that the Everglades News was to meet him in Green Cove, but he is now in the Pahokee Rotary Club.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wouters and Louis Vertman have returned from a vacation in Michigan. Captain Wouters will remain in Michigan about two weeks longer to harvest a crop of seed before they are growing there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Forbes were on their way to New Orleans from El Paso, Texas, this week, returning home from a long trip. Mrs. Forbes is a sister of Mrs. Jack Barrett.

B & B OPENS STORE IN CANAL POINT

The B & B Grocery Company will open a store in Canal Point tomorrow (Saturday). The location is the Bryant building next to the Bank of Canal Point, where work has been under way for a week for the installation of fixtures and stock.

The Canal Point store and the Pahokee store will be operated as a unit under the direction of P. R. Foster, who has long been a manager of the Pahokee store.

In size and shape of store, modern character of the fixtures and the character of the stock, the B & B Canal Point store is one of the best in the state.

GUAVA TIME HERE
Guavas are beginning to ripen along Conners highway in Okeechobee county, and that's good news.

The news that the Okeechobee guavas are maturing comes through Joe Friedman of Belle Glade, who was a member of a party that went up Conners highway and got some guavas.

Showers and a bit of wind had laid the trees and made the ripened fruit to the ground. In other sections it was the practice of gathering to get to the trees early in the morning before the range cows ate the fruit that fell during the night or trampled it, and that probably will be the practice this year.

Guava jelly is esteemed by most of the people who have eaten it as the best jelly in the world.
